MARRIED AT NOON TODAY.

MRS. PHILIP FRANCIS HARVEY.
Who was Mrs. Kathryn Patterson Talmadge.

was performed by the Rev. Sidney Kingman Perkins. Mr. Johnson is well known in Washington through his connection with the National Geographic Society.

The marriage of Mrs. Kathryn Patterson Talmadge and Col. Philip Francis Harvey, U. S. A., retired, took place at noon today in the bride's apartment at Stoneleigh Court.

The Rev. E. B. Pierce, rector of All Souls' Church, performed the ceremony, which took place in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends in the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and palms.

The bride wore a smart traveling costume of gray cloth, with hat to match, and a corsage bouquet of mauve orchids and lilies of the valley.

A breakfast for the guests present at the ceremony followed. Col. and Mrs. Harvey left this afternoon for an extended tour of the west. They will visit the exposition at San Francisco, Yellowstone Park and other points of interest before returning to the city in the autumn. They will be at home after November 1 at the Parkwood.

Miss Frances Moore, who is with Mrs. Swift at Selftmoor, Pride Crossing, Mass., will go this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Wamamaker at Lindenhurst, Jenkintown, Pa., and will remain with them until after the wedding of Miss Marie Louise Wamamaker and Mr. Gurnee Munn, at which she will be bridesmaid.

Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Peter, Jr., and family are spending a few days in New York before going to their summer home in Cambridge, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Greenhoot of Escanaba, Mich., announce the marriage of their daughter, Marguerite, and Dr. Melville B. Fischer of this city, June 21, 1915.

Mrs. Allen K. Capron and Mrs. Clifford Walton are the guests of Mrs. Britton at Warrenton, Va.

A quiet wedding took place last Saturday, when Miss Ruth A. Points and Mr. William Towers, Jr., were married at the residence of the bridegroom in Georgetown.

The Rev. J. W. Blake of Christ Church performed the ceremony, in the presence of a small company of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Towers left later for Atlantic City. They will reside temporarily at 1521 35th street northwest on their return.

Miss Katharine Rudolph West has gone to New London, Conn., to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Putnam.

Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo has leased a cottage at Northeast Harbor, Me., for the summer, where Mrs. McAdoo and her infant daughter will be established with in the next fortnight.

Cards have been issued announcing the marriage of Miss Theodora Louise Baler, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Baler of 1208 Girard street, and Mr. Harry J. Pearson of Kansas City, Mo.

Rev. H. Schroeder performed the ceremony, which took place Thursday evening, June 17, in the parsonage of Christ Lutheran Church.

The bride wore a gown of white lace over white satin, with a picture hat. Miss Helene Baler was her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Floyd Pearson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. A buffet supper followed, and later
